Joe Tormala, Commander of the Copper Country Chapter of the MOPH, thanked Council for allowing them to hold the 75th Annual Military Order Purple Heart Fall State Convention at the Ojibwa Resort on October 8-9, 2010, and made a verbal request for a financial donation. Council informed Mr. Tormala they would look at his request at a later date when they meet to process donations for the month.

Doreen Blaker and Janice Shalfoe addressed the Council requesting the opportunity to present a draft in the near future of a Constitutional Amendment Protecting Clean Water. Council agreed to look at the document and advise the Constitutional Task Force.

Debra Parrish, KBOCC President, presented Council with the chosen design and invoice for a mural to be painted on the north side of the library/science center by KBIC Tribal member, Corey Fountaine. Motion by Elizabeth D. Mayo to approve $1500 for the mural to be painted on the north side of the library/science center, supported by Michael LaFernier, Sr., nine supported (Emery, Curtis, Dakota, M. HUD TCUP grant has been received for an expansion to the south east side of the Technology Resource Center of 5300 square feet for a Native American Studies/Workforce Development Center. This will house the Native Studies department, student services career component, and a community job skill center. Negotiations are in preliminary stages for a housing component with KBIC's Four Seasons Motel and a food component with either the KBIC Daycare or the Eagle's Nest Restaurant. KBOCC has recently hired Jay Loonsfoot as their Native American Studies Department Chair, Jesse Koenig as an English Instructor, and Chris Anderson as a Math Instructor. Ms. Parrish also requested a letter from the Tribe authorizing Rick C. Geroux, Jerry Magnant, and Donald Funke for screening excess property/equipment. This equipment will be used for setting up automotive and diesel mechanic training. It was the consensus of Council for President Swartz to sign a letter on this matter.

JULY 2010 PRESIDENT'S REPORT

The following is a list of activities that occurred in the office of the President during the month of July 2010.

- I attended a Midwest Alliance of Sovereign Tribe's meeting (MAST). We heard from a number of speakers including Brian Peirson from Godfrey & Kahn, Diane Rosen, Regional Director from the US Department of Interior BIA, Matt Wesaw, Area Representative for NCAI, and Governor Granholm.
 - Topics discussed were guidance on gaming and fee to trust lands, Midwest health board, seven generations corporation and American Indian Studies program.
- I had a brief discussion with Brian Pierson from Godfrey & Kahn. We discussed the Class I Clean Air status which could be a valuable tool for KBIC, both in connection with the MIN mine and for the long term protection of the reservation and ceded territory. Forest County Pottawatomie Community (FCPC) has already used their class I status to push back against Michigan Iron Nugget's attempt to use shortcuts for their permits.
- I met with Governor Granholm and had an opportunity to briefly discuss with her an extension of the term of the Compact to 2033 and a reduction in the amount of the payments from net win from 8% to 6%. I followed up with a letter describing the details of our request.
- I approved the sharing of our Corporate and LLC Codes and the templates to start a business, like Articles of Incorporation and bylaws for a corporation and Articles of Organization and Operating Agreement for an LLC. Since we benefitted from codes and forms prepared for us by other Tribes, I thought it was a good idea for us to share the drafts Lance Morgan has prepared for use with Red Lake.
- I did an interview with Dick Storm from our radio station in Hancock.
 - Topics discussed included our municipal solid waste transfer station, Casino in Marquette, adoption of business codes, the addition to the Health Clinic, annual fish stocking program, and the KBIC annual powwow. The interview went well.

- I attended the Kid's Fishing Derby, and it was a huge success.
- We met with the US Attorney's Office for our annual meeting. We asked for access to the National Crime Information Computer (NCIC). We will need to be able to verify that motor vehicle information is correct when members come in, and that the vehicle isn't stolen, or that they weren't sold stolen properly.
- I contacted our representative Bart Stupak and asked him to support the passage of the Tribal Law and Order Act. I informed him lives are at stake, and now is the time to get the TLOA passed to help remedy the dire public safety situation on Indian lands. This legislation aims to advance Tribal sovereignty, empower Tribal law enforcement, reauthorize critical Tribal justice programs, and increase federal accountability. As we all know President Obama signed the Tribal Law and Order Act. This legislation had broad bipartisan support. A lot of work needs to be done if we want to benefit fully from the passage of this new legislation.
- Yvette Friisvall continues to work on reviewing the recodification of the Tribal Code.
- I attended an Inter-Tribal Council meeting in Hannahville, Michigan. Topics on the agenda included Sharon Teeple's resignation and the Michigan Indian Tuition Waiver (MITW). Somehow the MITW verification process is now with the Michigan Department of Civil Rights. For as long as I can remember the MITW verification was done by the Inter-Tribal Council of Michigan. We continue to monitor this situation to ensure our Tribal members receive their waivers. We also accepted the resignation of Sharon Teeple and agreed to post the executive director position.

- We received a draft inspection report from the Michigan Gaming Control Board. The Board was here in February of this year and we are reviewing their findings. The report is a result of the on-site compliance visit. We intend to respond to their findings.

This concludes my report for the month of July.

Respectfully submitted,
Warren (Chris) Swartz, Jr., President

SECRETARY'S REPORT FOR THE MONTH OF JULY 2010

Activities reported by the Secretary, Susan J. LaFernier, for the month of July 2010.

We all need to commit to do our part to make a difference to protect our environment and change the world. There are everyday measures we can do to reduce air pollution, conserve water, reduce/reuse/recycle/re-buy materials, and prevent pollution in general.

Thank you to everyone who cares and protects our earth and water every day. It is our responsibility: Tribes, residents, municipalities, businesses, and visitors need to protect and restore the quality of Lake Superior's (and all of our lakes) waters, land, and wildlife. The lakes have always been and always will be important to the quality of our life.

Litter gets blown, it gets thrown, and it gets dumped. PLEASE DON'T LITTER—PICK UP LITTER AND REPORT LITTERING.

On July 21st our Tribe met with United States Attorney Donald A. Davis and staff at Western District of Michigan to discuss issues and concerns and review the draft Indian Country Law Enforcement Operational Plan.

We continue to have monthly meetings with our employee W.H.I.P.P. (Wellness, Health, Intervention, Prevention Program) Task Force, volunteers and our Blue Cross Representative/Employee Benefits Agency. It is never too late to encourage positive lifestyle changes that will help us live longer, healthier, happier lives." For the summer months, the Task Force and volunteers have promoted the "Walk Your Way To Wellness" Walking Challenge May 2—August 7, 2010, with prizes awarded during each of the five segments and two grand prize winners. The 4th segment prize winners were announced on July 22nd with Steven Irwin (Baraga Casino) winning $500 worth of gift certificates for a shopping spree in Green Bay. The final segment and grand prize will be awarded in August. Also congratulations to Keweenaw Bay for 1st place in the 2010 (also in 2009) Annual Tribe-to-Tribe Walking Challenge! Six tribes participated and Keweenaw Bay walked 743,987 steps per participant. Thank you to the WHIPP Task Force and great job walkers! Be watching for special events/healthful information each month. Also thanks to everyone who participated in the 5th Annual Denise Marth Memorial Family Fun Run on July 10th.

On March 11th and 12th, KBIC, Huron Mountain Club, National Wildlife Federation, and the Yellow Dog Watershed Environmental Preserve, Inc. filed "Petitions for Review of Final Determination and Order of the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality Concerning Part 31 Groundwater Discharge Permit No. GW1810162 and Part 632 Nonferrous Metallic Mineral Mining No. MP 01 2007" in the circuit court for the County of Washtenaw in Ann Arbor, Michigan. The oral arguments/briefs were heard on June 2, 2010, regarding the request for a motion to dismiss/and a change of venue by Kennecott. A decision for these requests should be made in the coming month by the judge. The final briefs were filed in Washtenaw Circuit Court regarding the Part 632 Mining Permit Case (including Eagle Rock) and the Part 31 Groundwater Permit Case on July 20th.

Miigwech and our appreciation to all of our brave and courageous members and friends who have been taking care of Migi zii wa sin throughout the ages.

Please continue to tell/write your elected officials and everyone that the short term benefits of the proposed mine are not worth the harmful long term effects on our health, rivers, Great Lakes, wood and wild places because of the great potential for acid mine drainage. Also challenge your November election candidates to address issues of sulfide mining, sulfide and uranium exploration, mineral rights, and landowner rights. Please call me or write if you would like to review the National Wildlife Federation's DVD "Mining Madness, Water Wars: The Great Lakes in the Balance."

Remember to continue to pray for, honor, and remember all of our veterans, service men and women, and their families. Remember those who are ill, all who have lost loved ones in the last year, and our economic struggles. Let us be thankful for our beautiful area, and we pray for peace in the world, good health, and happiness.

We also continue to recognize the richness of Native American contributions, accomplishments, and sacrifices to the political, cultural, and economic life of Michigan and the United States. Remember "Indian Country Counts—Our People, Our Nations, Our Future!"

Remember the Drug Tip Line number is 353-DRUG or 353-3784. The yellow banners are around the reservation with this drug tip line number displayed. The Drug Task Force holds monthly meetings. On July 13th, the task force and other departments met with the U.S. District Court—Western District of MI, U.S. probation officer from Marquette regarding drug courts, reentry, and supportive housing issues. The Drug Force Mission statement: "To promote education through public awareness with the specific objective to eliminate the use of illegal drugs for the betterment of the health, welfare, and safety of the Keweenaw Bay Indian Community and our neighboring Communities." Be watching for an educational event coming in September on prescription drugs with the Copper Country Mental Health Department. On July 27th, the hearing regarding random drug testing for Enterprise employees was heard at Tribal Court with Judge Bradley Dakota. Additional briefs will be filed within 30 days.

CEO REPORT FOR THE MONTH OF JULY 2010

The month of July is always a time of year when staff enjoy the summer weather and take vacations, as I did during the 4th of July holiday.

We have received draft reports from Gaming Market Advisors regarding options for the Tribe's Casinos. The Casino Projects Task Force will be meeting in early August to review the reports. Once the final reports are in, the task force will present them to Council for review and consideration.

Robert Mudd, the new General Manager for the Ojibwa Casino Resort began working on July 26th. Mr. Mudd's first 90 days will include an evaluation of current options.

The first round of random drug testing took place mid-July after Council reinstated that portion of the Drug Free Work Place policy. The random testing had been suspended since June of 2007.

Sarah Smith, Assistant CEO, and President Swartz traveled to the Hannahville Tribe to attend an Inter-Tribal Council of MI board meeting. One of the topics discussed was KBIC's request of a relinquishment of our service area, so that KBIC may reapply for direct funding to operate the programs without the Inter Tribal Council of MI oversight." A directive was passed to have the Board Chairman, Derek Bailey, send a letter to the DHHS' Office of Head Start requesting a clear process for KBIC to follow for the relinquishment of our service area.

Construction of the new Early Childhood Education Center will soon be breaking ground. Council approved the low bid of Ojibwa Builder's as contractor for the project. The bid totals just over $1.5 million and will generate much needed jobs in the area. The current timeline has completion of the project set for January of 2011.

The Health Center construction and renovation project is progressing, and Project Manager, Bruce LaPointe, indicated that the completion date of September 30th is realistic. Contractors have encountered unforeseen problems but are working through them and will extend their work hours to aid in completing the project on time.

The Annual Governmental Employee

Picnic took place at the L'Anse Golf Course on August 6th. Tribal Government offices closed at 11 a.m. Employees enjoyed great food prepared by the Tribe's Migizi Wadiswan staff, games, and prizes and a sunny day. A big Miigwech goes out to the planning task force for organizing the memorable event.

Planning for the Ojibwa Casino Resort's 25th Anniversary continues. With Council's approval of nearly $200,000 for the event, it should prove to be very exciting. The nearly week long event will close with a grand prize drawing for $25,000 in cash.

During August, the Ojibwa Casinos will be making a change to the Double Eagle Player's club. Currently patrons are issued a player's card which should be able to be used at either casino. Many ongoing issues with the module that controls the single card system have been ongoing and don't allow player's points to combine. Since the manufacturer doesn't have a plan for fixing the problem, the module will be removed and players will then have separate player's cards for each casino. Staff is currently planning the switch over and will make the change as seamless as possible for the customers.

The Community Assistance Program office is in the process of performing weatherization audits on community member's homes. The grant funded project, which will take place over the next year, provides funding for the initial home audit followed by weatherization repairs and replacement. If members would like more information or would like to apply for the program, they can contact the Community Assistance Program office.

The Tribe's Annual Powwow took place the weekend of July 23rd. In recognition of the event, Tribal Government offices were closed on the 23rd, and it was deemed a Cultural Day, so our employees could participate in the event.

As always, if anyone has questions, concerns, or issues that the CEO's office can assist with, please don't hesitate to stop, e-mail, or call.

Respectfully submitted,
Larry J. Denomie, III, CEO

2010 Ann Misegan Memorial Scholarship Recipient Chosen

Newsletter photo.

Michelle Maki, a Finlandia University sophomore from Baraga, has been selected as the fourth recipient of the Tribe's Ann Misegan Memorial Scholarship. The Tribal Education Committee, along with a member of the Health Board, reviewed the applicants and selected Maki to receive the scholarship.

Michelle is majoring in Nursing. She is a graduate of John Carroll High School and has worked as an Admitting Clerk and Administrative Assistant at a hospital in Florida. She has also enjoyed being a stay at home mom, raising her three daughters. She began attending Finlandia during the 2009-10 academic year and was placed on the Dean's list for both semesters.

Ann Misegan was a long time Tribal Council member whose priority was the health of the Tribal membership. She was adamant that Tribal members be trained for as many positions as possible within the Tribe, and she also encouraged members to seek further education, especially in health fields. She was a member of the Tribe's Health Board as well as their Dental Assistant for many years. She held an LPN certificate from Northern Michigan University and worked as a nurse for Baraga County Memorial Hospital before coming to work for the Tribe. This scholarship seeks to reward members who have the same passion for health care that Ann did.

This scholarship amount is $1,000 twice per year for up to six years and will be awarded to a new student each fall. Applicants must meet the following criteria: be an enrolled Tribal member, attend an accredited college/university as a full-time student; pursue a degree in a Health Care field documented by their college (preference will be given to students either in a nursing or dental program); and be a resident of Baraga or Marquette County. Applications for the 2011-12 academic year will be available in June 2011. For more information about this scholarship, please contact Amy St. Arnold, KBIC Education Director at 906-353-6623, ext. 4117.

TRIBAL HEALTH ANNOUNCES CHANGES TO BE MADE TO YOUR PRESCRIPTION CARDS

Changes in your prescription benefit management (PBM) card for those KBIC Tribal members and descendants who are uninsured, are coming on September 1, 2010. The KBIC Department of Health and Human Services and UPHP have switched Pharmacy Benefits Management from 4D Pharmacy, Inc., to Catalyst RX.

New member identification cards will be mailed out during the end of August and our uninsured patients will be receiving them before September 1st.

Our uninsured patients should not notice anything, except for receiving a new PBM card to use when they pick of their prescriptions. We have chosen to go with UPHP and the new PBM because of current and projected costs savings to our CHS pharmacy budget. There will still be a $4.00 co-pay for generic and preferred prescriptions.

You can visit the Cataluyst Rx website at www.catalystrx.com to review the KBIC Benefits, search for lower-coast prescription alternatives, access health and wellness information, and more!

Green Baby Tips

Are you a mom or mom-to-be? Do you know someone who is? Having a baby can certainly have an impact on the environment, but there are many ways to reduce that impact. One of the easiest and most effective things you can do is to not 'buy' in: you really don't need all that baby 'stuff' they say you do. For the essential items you must have, try to buy secondhand and local items and avoid disposable items. Disposable means more resources are consumed and more waste ends up in landfills. Instead choose sturdy, long-lasting products. Stray away from petroleum-based products and products containing environmental toxins such as phthalates, chlorine, and parabens and instead look for products made with less-toxic, environmentally friendly materials such as bamboo, hemp, and organic cotton. Here are some tips for welcoming and raising your baby in a more earth-friendly fashion.

Diapering

Give reusable diapers a try. Modern reusable cloth diapers are not the cloth diapers of the past. Most modern reusable diapers are fitted with snap or Velcro closures that function much like a disposable. There are many types – from all-in-ones to pocket diapers, to covers and prefolds. For more information, check out: <http://greenmomhappymom.com/overview-of-cloth-diaper-styles/>. Reusable diapers, once soiled, can be washed and used again, reducing the amount of waste sent to the landfill and can be found in environmentally friendly materials like bamboo, hemp, and organic cotton. In the United States, about 3.4 million tons of diapers are landfilled each year and a typical diaper takes 200-500 years to decompose. And while cloth diapers have more upfront costs, they are cheaper over the long-run than disposable diapers. The average baby will use 6,000 diapers before potty training, costing an average of $2,500. Washing diapers in cold water, using non-toxic detergent, and line-drying help reduce the impact (and cost) associated with laundering reusable diapers. The next best option to cloth diapers is biodegradable diapers, made with plant-based plastics that are compostable. While these have been found not to break down under landfill conditions, there are other options to compost them such as using a composting toilet, an earthworm system, or a highly active and properly conditioned composting area. Hybrid diapers, like gDiapers, have removable inserts that can safely biodegrade when flushed. As a last resort, if you must purchase disposable diapers, try to buy chlorine-free diapers, like Seventh Generation chlorine-free diapers.

Feeding

Breastfeeding is best - it's free, has health benefits for mother and baby, has no environmental impact, and is a precious bonding experience. Breastfeeding requires no plastic bottles, rubber nipples, or the water and energy to heat up, cool down, or mix formula. For breast pads, try re-usable organic cotton or wool felt pads. While there are many great, organic nipple creams available, some locally produced olive oil or organic lanolin does a great job. If bottle feeding becomes a necessity, pumping your own is the first choice. Make sure to use glass or BPA-free bottles. If pumping is not an option, using a fair-trade organic infant formula is preferable. If this is neither affordable nor accessible, then the next best thing is to ensure the brand of formula you buy is from a company not profiteering from marketing their product to developing countries. At about six months, babies start to eat real food. The best option is to make your own homemade baby food. Cook up veggies, casseroles, and fruit and freeze it in tiny containers or ice cube trays ready to take out and defrost when needed. You can even reuse baby food jars from a friend or relative. Or mash up or puree whatever is on the dinner menu that night (be sure you discuss any concerns over dietary requirements with your health professional). For those occasional situations when you must buy baby food, purchase organic or fresh frozen baby foods.

Clothing

Not only does a baby grow out of clothes extremely fast, they are constantly sending bodily fluids flying onto those precious outfits. Second-hand clothing is the cheapest and most sustainable option. Get hand-me-downs from friends and family or look in thrift shops, Craigslist (check out <http://up.craigslist.org/>), or Freecycle (check out <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/Baragacountyfreecycle/>). Organic hemp or cotton, bamboo or wool fabrics made without toxic chemicals are best against sensitive skin and last longer with the constant washing.

Washing

Studies have shown that children brought up in over-cleaned houses are more likely to develop allergies, asthma, or eczema. The best thing you can do for sensitive baby skin is not to cover it with synthetic chemicals. Wash with pure soap and warm water. Check out www.cleanbabyup.com for locally-made natural baby care products. For household cleaning, make your own non-toxic cleansers with simple ingredients such as baking soda and vinegar.

Play Time

Get back to basics and try long-lasting, old-fashioned wooden toys and organic cotton or homemade teddies. Because babies put most things in their mouths, go as natural as possible, and when baby is a little older, get hold of second-hand toys. Also aim for toys that helps build a child's bond with nature.

Furniture and accessories

Babies don't need much—a secure place to sleep, a car seat, a high chair, and a way to be carried around. Opt for second-hand furniture, everything except mattresses (some research suggests a link between second-hand crib mattresses and sudden infant death syndrome) and car seats, which can have invisible accident damage. If you buy new furniture, purchase high quality, durable pieces made of sustainable, low-toxicity materials. Think about some alternatives to the regular old wooden baby bed; try using an organic cotton baby hammock or a crib that extends into a bed and lasts 6-7 years. When decorating the nursery, use natural and low-VOC paints as well as carpeting.

KBIC Natural Resources Department VALues Volunteers

KBIC Natural Resource Department has, over the years, community members and organizations volunteer for such things as hatchery operations, fin clipping and fish stocking, wildlife inventory, kid's derby and environmental fair assistance. One volunteer, Valoree Gagnon, stands out as exceptional and the NRD wishes to thank her for her generous service.

Val has volunteered over 350 hours since April with the NRD. She has assisted with the environmental fair and the Kids Fishing Derby, fin clipped, helped with fish stocking and mammal surveys, frog surveys, and even rolled up her sleeves to help dig out the septic system for routine maintenance. She most diligently assists with the new greenhouse including landscaping, planting and maintaining plants within the greenhouse.

Who is this woman you may ask? Adopted from South Korea and raised in Fort Worth Texas, Val has lived in the area for the past five years. She is married with three children. She and her husband Alan were full time foster parents for eight years before moving here from Texas to be near Alan's parents who are local residents.

Val has a teaching degree from Michigan Tech University and is currently a graduate student attending MTU in the Social Science Department. She is studying the cultural significance of fish contaminants for native people here on the L'Anse Reservation. She will be interviewing community members about their experiences with fishing; she will look at the historical perspective as well as the current perspective and how fish contaminants are perceived by the community. She hopes that her thesis will provide regulatory agencies with important insight as to how they should increase efforts to clean up the environment rather than simply post consumption warnings for the public. All information gathered will be reported anonymous without any personal information revealed.

Val is not only very discreet and professional, but she has shown a genuine "habit of the heart" in wanting to serve people in the communities wherever she lives. She is the perfect example of American volunteerism. In fact, the Corporation for National and Community Service recently released volunteer statistics for 2009, and across the country, 63.4 million Americans volunteered to help their communities. This number represents an additional 1.6 million volunteers when compared to 2008. U.S. volunteers contributed 8.1 billion hours of service, which has an estimated dollar value of nearly $169 billion (<http://www.volunteeringinamerica.gov/index.cfm>). Val has certainly done her share here with the KBNRD!

Val is a hard working and generous volunteer from whom we can all learn a lesson in graciousness. Be sure to say a warm hello as you see her interacting in the community, you'll be glad to know her. We surely appreciate her dedication and feel extremely fortunate to have her dependable and ever cheerful assistance at the Natural Resource Department. Miigwech Val!

KBOCC STUDENTS DISPLAY POSTER AT THE NATIONAL MUSEUM OF THE AMERICAN INDIAN

On August 6, 2010, KBOCC environmental science students, Karen Andersen and Shelly Danielson, and faculty member, Erin Johnston traveled to Washington, D.C. to the National Museum of the American Indian. Their research poster titled "Plant Communities Along the Historic L'Anse-Lac Vieux Desert Trail in Michigan's Upper Peninsula" was selected to be displayed in the museum's Living Earth Symposium under the program "Tribal College and University Climate Research: A Seven Generation Vision for the Living Earth." The research poster was one component required for the completion of a ten week internship funded by NASA and AIHEC.

KBIC TITLING TASK FORCE MEMBERS MEET WITH PRAIRIE BAND POTAWATOMI'S VEHICLE REGISTRAR

Jeanne Kauppila, Licensing Clerk, Elizabeth Mayo, Council Member, and Jennifer Misegan, Enrollment/Licensing Director, traveled to the Prairie Band Potawatomi Nation in Mayetta, Kansas. The Task Force members met with the Potawatomi's Motor Vehicle Registrar to review the Prairie Band's motor vehicle titling process. The Task Force members also met with the Prairie Band's Attorney and Council Treasurer to discuss the PBN ordinance.

Jennifer stated, "The trip was extremely informative. We were able to see the process first hand. We definitely have our work cut out for us. We have to make sure that the Ordinance that is approved fits the Keweenaw Bay Indian Community and doesn't impose unnecessary restriction on our members, but protects their interests. They also took us on a tour of their beautiful reservation. We met a lot of helpful and friendly people. It is always nice to get a different perspective."

Jeanne, Elizabeth, and Jennifer are part of the Titling Taskforce that is working on establishing vehicle titling for our Tribe. Other members of the Taskforce include Christoph Geiger, Deputy Attorney; Fred Dakota, Council Member; Stacey Koski, Business Owner; and Miranda Voakes, Police Officer. An ordinance was introduced on April 29, 2010. The final reading will be held at the Tribal Council meeting on September 11, 2010.

environmental Specialist.

On Saturday, July 31, there was a focused session on mining in the U.P. with expert perspectives on active mineral exploration taking place throughout the region, treaty rights, cultural concerns, local grassroots efforts, international movements, and lessons from Wisconsin's Native-environmental alliance to stop the Crandon Mine.

Winona LaDuke was the keynote speaker Friday night and Saturday. LaDuke is Anishinaabeg from the White Earth reservation in Minnesota. She is a mother, author, former Green Party vice presidential candidate, Harvard graduate, and activist. Winona is a founding director of both the White Earth Land Recovery Program and Honor the Earth.

LaDuke spoke about the importance of creating greater resiliency and self-determination within our communities. In an era of unsustainable economic growth, food and energy sovereignty are important steps we can take to achieve environmental and economic self-determination and also decrease our dependency on multinational corporations. New Warriors for the Earth honored LaDuke with a blue water shawl for all of her support and inspiring words.

der, of the Great Lakes Indian Fish and Wildlife Commission organized a rally in opposition of the proposal, and the first rally was held at the Mole Lake Reservation in Wisconsin. The rally brought awareness to the DOE's proposal, but also helped bring together people from all walks of life to work toward a common goal. From that day forward Protect the Earth became an important tradition in Wisconsin and played a very important role in the battle to protect the land and water from metallic sulfide mining.

In 2008, the Protect the Earth was handed over to citizen leaders in Michigan's Upper Peninsula. Oshkinawe Ogichidaag Akiing, New Warriors for the Earth (NWE), carried on the tradition this year in 2010. NWE is a new Anishinaabe-based environmental organization dedicated to educating and empowering our communities to take action to protect Aki, Mother Earth. Its mission is to raise awareness about mining and environmental injustices facing the Great Lakes region and Mother Earth.

A main focus of concern throughout the weekend was the controversial Eagle Mine, and increasing public awareness of sulfide and uranium mining interest in the region. There was special concern for the protection of Migi zii wa sin, Eagle Rock, as a National Historic Site and Sacred Place to the Anishinaabe people.

Doreen Blaker, Keweenaw Bay Indian Community tribal member, advocated the need to carry on the late Walt Bressette's vision of a constitutional amendment to recognize our human right and future generation's right, to clean air and water. Walt Bressette was a co-founder of the first Protect the Earth's held in Wisconsin.

Stuart Kirsch, an anthropologist at the University of Michigan, spoke near the Yellow Dog River about the detrimental affects of mining along the Ok Tedi and Fly Rivers for the Yonggom people of Papua New Guinea. Kirsch emphasized that it is not too late to stop sulfide mining from contaminating our rivers and watersheds here in the U.P.

Protect the Earth and the annual walk to Eagle Rock re-energized our spirits and commitment to protecting the Yellow Dog Plains. As a people, it is our responsibility to not allow Rio Tinto the social license to mine near our freshwater and Great Lakes.

New Warriors for the Earth would like to give a special thanks to all of the Protect the Earth sponsors including: the Western Mining Action Network, Indigenous Environmental Network, KBIC Tribal Council, KBIC Cultural Committee, Ojibwa Casino & Resort, Northern Michigan University Center for Native American Studies, Save the Wild UP, Keepers of the Water, Yellow Dog Summer, the Yellow Dog Watershed Preserve, and additional personal donors.
